

LS telcom Inc. provides innovative solutions for the telecommunications and spectrum management industry. With a friendly, informal culture, and substantial growth opportunities, LS telcom provides an ideal environment for talented software engineers. This position is for a mid-level programmer with experience programming with C# and SQL software development.

Software Developer for LS telcom Inc. (f/m)

Job description

The Software Engineer will perform all or some of the following:

- Provide computer science software development support using industry standard software development practices and modern programming languages/operating systems
- Participate in a research team: gather information, test theories, document findings
- Contribute to complete technical projects/organizational objectives on multidisciplinary teams
- Design, implement, deploy, and maintain software systems using object-oriented analysis, design, and programming techniques
- Share knowledge/opinions/recommendations with developers to fulfill deliverables as a team

Minimum Requirements:

- Implementation, integration, testing, and deployment
- Experience developing software with both C++ and C#
- Experience developing software applications in a Windows environment. Experience with Linux and other operating systems is a plus
- Experience with data analysis algorithms, data management approaches, relational databases, machine learning algorithms (1 or more)
- Ability to effectively manage concurrent technical tasks/competing priorities; approach difficult problems with enthusiasm/creativity; change focus when necessary
- Ability to work independently, implement research concepts in multidisciplinary team environment commitments, deadlines important to project success
- Effective interpersonal skills necessary to interact with all levels of personnel
- Ability to communicate technical information, document work, prepares and presents successful proposals and high-quality research papers
- Demonstrated effective analytical/problem-solving skills, ability to work with minimal guidance and competing priorities; provide innovative, creative solutions to tasks and problems.

Experience/Skills/Knowledge

- Microsoft .Net
- ADO.Net
- Windows Forms
- Windows Communication Foundation (WCF)
- CAB
- Windows Operating Systems Administration
- User right management
- SQL Programming and queries
- Database administration and configuration
- Network TCP/IP, routing, interface configuration, DNS, firewall, proxy, remote access and VPN

Other Requirements

- US Citizenship required
- Ability to multitask
- Good communications skills
- Ability to travel internationally on occasions
- Self-starter
- Independent thinker and good team player
- Capable to troubleshoot computer hardware

Desired Experience:

- Basic radio communications knowledge is a plus

Minimum Educational Requirement

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science

Please send your complete application to Istelcomincjobs@Istelcom.com.

